QUAKER CITY IS PARALYZED BY STOPPAGES

Strikes Leave Philadelphia's Millions Virtually Without Public Transportation

MOST CABS STILLED

Philadelphia, Feb. 15.—(P)—A taxicab strike on top of a five-day walkout of subway, bus and trolley workers left Philadelphia's millions virtually without public transportation today.

Scattered fist fights marked start of the unexpected cab tie-up. Taxi union leaders had postponed a strike 54 hours until Thursday. But rank and file drivers of Yellow Cab Company quit work anyway at midnight.

Except for a handful of independent taxis, not a public vehicle moved in the Quaker City. The strikes over wages idled 11,000 CIO Philadelphia Transportation Company workers and 3,550 AFL Yellow Cab operators.

Complete paralysis of the city's transportation system was averted by the Pennsylvania and Reading Railroads which operated record numbers of shuttle trains from suburban areas.

These trains made two or three stops in outlying sections of the city before bringing passengers into the downtown area. If you didn't live near these stops it was either walk or thumb your way in.

The Pennsylvania Railroad estimated it is carrying 170,000 persons daily, twice its normal load. Reading had no figures but said its commuter crowd is three times heavier than usual.

Automobiles jammed main arteries. But traffic policemen at virtually every intersection—more than 1,200 were on duty—kept peak hour bumper-to-bumper traffic flowing. It was slow—but the average man got to work.

Federal agencies and private concerns mobilized fleets of trucks to haul workers but business and industry estimated daily losses at $100,000,000. Downtown stores decided to forego their usual Wednesday night opening because of the stoppage. Retail business dropped 50 per cent.

Coming at a time when most of the suburban rail lines had discontinued service for the night, the walkout left hundreds stranded outside night clubs, theaters and industrial plants.

Better Tip Off Revenue Dep't About Those Extra Expenses

Washington, Feb. 15.—(P)—If you paid a doctor or lawyer or dentist or house servant more than $600 during 1948, you'd better tip off the Internal Revenue Department about those extra expenses.

That is the deadline for filing "information returns" (form 1099) advising the Internal Revenue Bureau about payments you made that didn't have withholding tax deductions.

The bureau checks this information against the income tax returns of those who got the payments. Sometimes it catches up in this way with tax chiselers who try to hide out income.

Inflation has made the information return requirement apply now to a considerable number of persons who never heard of the requirement before. It has been in the law for more than 25 years.

Take the case of renters, for instance. A great many more now pay sums in excess of the $600 minimum than was the case a few years ago, and hence are now required to file information returns.

This should be noted carefully, however: Rent payments of over $600 last year need be reported on an information return only if they were paid directly to an individual landlord.

If your landlord is a corporation, or if he is an individual whom you pay through his agent, no information return is required no matter how big the rent is.

The $600 figure is the smallest on which information returns are required in the case of payments of interest, salaries, wages or other personal compensation not subject to withholding tax deductions.

Unlike income tax returns themselves, information returns must in all cases be sent to the Revenue Bureau's processing division at Kansas City, Mo.

Foremen And Ladies Enjoy Small "Parade of Quartets"

The Warren Foremen's Club had a good start toward "Parade of Quartets" entertainment for their annual Ladies' Night dinner meeting at the YMCA last night.

Highlight of the meeting was the appearance of the famed Westinghouse barbershop quartet of Pittsburgh, which placed fourth in international competition last year and is rated one of the quartets in the running for the championship this year.

The quartet, comprised of Earle F. Elder, baritone; William P. McDowell, second tenor; Carl F. Chade, first tenor and Edwin H. Hanson, bass, sang three numbers, concluding with an arrangement of an aria from Rigoletto. La Donna e Mobile, and later came back for an encore of four numbers, which included the quartet from Rigoletto.

White Hot Struggle Raging In Assembly Over Gasoline And Taxes On Soft Drinks

Harrisburg, Feb. 15.—(P)—A handful of Republican legislators today held the balance of power in a white hot struggle in the general assembly over controversial gasoline and soft drink taxes.

Gov. James H. Duff's Republican forces won every round in the preliminary fighting in the house with GOP leaders predicting victory in the final vote late today.

"I am completely optimistic," Rep. Charles H. Brunner, Jr., Republican floor leader. "All of the governor's tax program is going through."

Involved are proposals to boost the state's gasoline tax to five cents a gallon for two years and to continue the contested soft drink levy until 1951. Other administration tax measures are unopposed.

Duff himself stayed in the battle over taxes yesterday when he told newsmen:

"I think it ought to be made abundantly clear that if we are going to do the things outlined in the administration program, we have to have the money. The only way I know to get the money is by taxes."

He denied any administration move was afoot to dump the soft drink tax in favor of some other levy and insisted it was needed to help pay for mental hospitals, stream clearance, schools, aid to hospitals, housing and other administration programs.

The levy imposes a one cent tax on every 12 ounces of bottled soft drinks, and a half cent on every ounce of syrup used in making fountain drinks.

The administration amendments introduced last night exempt from the tax, cider, fruit cordial, carbonated water, simple syrup (mixture of sugar and water) and bottled soft drinks sold to out-of-state retailers. All now pay tax. No estimate was made how much this would cut the $27,000,000 in the estimated two-year revenue.

Republican leaders talked of impending victory on the tax program after repeated attempts to delay house action on the gasoline and soft drink taxes were defeated by narrow margins.

The first attack came on the gasoline tax boost. Rep. Francis Worley (R-Adams) urged the bill be returned to committee for a public hearing. His move lost 108-85. He then sought to exempt farm gasoline from the tax. This was defeated 107-83.

Rep. H. G. Andrews, Democratic floor leader, next joined the attack and urged postponement of a vote to give opponents a chance to be heard. He also said local communities should have a chance to change the distribution of $20,000,000 in motor funds for local roads. His motion was beaten 108-84.

It was the same story on the soft drink levy. On that tax, Andrews said a delay would show whether the levy was actually needed.

He listed some $67,000,000 in what he termed unexpended funds for construction, appropriated in the last four years. Establishment of a new General State Building Authority to take over construction at institutions would release this money for current expenditures, he added.

This, Andrews stated, would come out of the need for the soft drink levy and might permit allocation of part of the receipts from the cigarette tax to road construction.

Brunner promised an answer tomorrow. Meanwhile, Andrews' motion to delay was voted down 111-82.

But the hardest job for the Republican leadership came earlier during two closed conferences with lawmakers of their own party.

The first session was devoted to discussion of the highway program with one GOP lawmaker, saying it was a time for "blowing off steam" (the Republicans) aired all their gripes.

U. S. Woman Held As Spy In Moscow

Moscow, Feb. 15.—(P)—The Moscow press announced today that Anna Louise Strong, well-known American author and correspondent, has been arrested on charges of spying and will be deported.

Miss Strong, who has been in Russia since the time since 1921 writing books and articles which reflected a strongly pro-Soviet viewpoint, is one of the seven American correspondents in Moscow. She was listed as representing the Allied Labor News.

Miss Strong, who married a Russian in 1932 but continued to use her maiden name, is the second American correspondent in a year to be charged with spy activities.

Robert Magidoff was ordered to leave Russia in April 1948 when Izvestia published a letter from his secretary, Cecelia Nelson of Michigan, accused him of spying. Magidoff said he believed his expulsion was for internal propaganda purposes.

Miss Strong has been in Russia most of the time in the last 28 years, and is known as the author of a score of books and articles which gave her the reputation of being strongly leftist and pro-Russian.

Among her books are "I Change Worlds"; the remaking of an American" (1935). The nation described the book as "The Strange Adventure of an Individual Soul Trying to Become Collectivized." The London Times said it was an "unconvincing apologia."

G. O. P. BILL MAY UPSET DEMO PLANS

Administration Labor Program Faces Difficulty In Plans of Opposition

DRAFTING MEASURE

Washington, Feb. 15.—(P)—Senator Morse (R-Ore.) predicted today that a Republican-sponsored labor bill may upset the administration labor program in the Democrat-dominated senate.

He made the comment as the senate labor committee called William Green, president of the American Federation of Labor, to testify on what he thought of the president's proposal to repeal the Taft-Hartley act and replace it with the Thomas bill, a modified Wagner act.

Morse said that if he and Senator Ives (R-N.Y.) can get together on a Morse-Ives bill, it would get enough Republican support to win a "balance of power."

If their bill, still incomplete, is introduced it would "determine the kind of labor legislation the senate finally will approve," Morse said.

The Morse-Ives bill opposes many features of the Taft-Hartley act, particularly the 30-day injunction against National Emergency strikes. They would drop that, but on the other hand they want a more comprehensive law than the Thomas bill backed by Democrats.

The senate, in recess until Thursday, had a busy committee schedule. Foreign aid, housing, the filibuster.

The house, in session, took up the first big money bill of the 81st congress—a $466,882,177 appropriation bill to finance various agencies.

On foreign aid, a member of the senate foreign relations committee said the economic cooperation administration is in favor of cutting the estimated cost of the second year program—$1,595,000,000 if food prices go down.

Senator Vandenberg (R-Mich.) and Senator Lodge (R-Mass.) raised the question of a possible cut in ECA spending during hearings yesterday. ECA Chief Paul Hoffman is expected to come up tomorrow with a revision of the entire program based on lower food costs.

A Senator George (D-Ga.) of the senate finance committee said he thinks the ECA can cut more than $270,000,000 without hurting the program.

A group of 15 Democratic members of the house ways and means committee was called before President Truman at the White House. The committee is to work on the president's vastly expanded social security program beginning Feb. 28. But the reason for the meeting today was not disclosed.

This, Andrews stated, would come out of the need for the soft drink levy and might permit allocation of part of the receipts from the cigarette tax to road construction.

The committee has put tax legislation aside while it tackles social security.

A senate banking subcommittee studying the housing shortage expects to have a bill ready next week, according to Chairman Sparkman (D-Ala.).

Democratic strategists worked on the question of when to present an anti-filibuster resolution before the senate. The senate Democratic policy committee ticketed that for discussion at an afternoon meeting.

JUST ANOTHER DAY FOR BACHELOR GOV.

Boston, Feb. 15.—(P)—The day of hearts and flowers—Feb. 14—doesn't stand out in the mind of Bachelor Governor Paul A. Dever. Ready to sign a measure yesterday, Dever looked at the calendar to check the date, then commented wryly:

"Imagine a bachelor having to look to see what day this is."

WOMAN FOUND GUILTY

Pittsburgh, Feb. 15.—(P)—Stella Carter, 22, who fatally stabbed a man on her way home last Sept. 22, was sentenced yesterday to serve six to 12 months in the county jail. She pleaded guilty to a manslaughter charge. The young woman told Judge J. Frank Graff she defended herself from George Thomas, 38. She said he accosted her. She will get credit for five months already spent in jail.

Gibson Offers BM To Correct Mistake

Harrisburg, Feb. 15.—(P)—Rep. Allen Gibson (R-War.) said today a bill he introduced in the House is designed to correct a surveyor's mistake over the proposed sale of three-quarters of an acre of Warren township lands.

"Two years ago we passed a law authorizing the sale of this land but it was on the wrong side of the road," Gibson told a reporter "now we must do it all over again."

He said the tract lies between the Warren-Jamestown road and Coneywango Creek and will be sold to a private owner "to round out the grounds at this home."

Expect Truman To Unveil More Of His Big Social Security Program

Under Guard After Threat

Hungarian Minister Andrew Sik enters the Hungarian Legation in Washington under the watchful eye of a police guard. A round-the-clock guard has been set up at the legation following a reported threat on the life of Sik.

North Atlantic Pact Plan Draws Varied Observations

Washington, Feb. 15.—(P)—Senator Hickenlooper (R-Iowa) said today the United States should be "morally committed" to act under the North Atlantic alliance only in cases of unprovoked aggression against a member.

Hickenlooper's observation came after Chairman Connally (D-Tex.) of the foreign relations committee and Senator Vandenberg (R-Mich.) had made it plain the senate won't approve any treaty language which would morally commit this country to go to war.

The Connally-Vandenberg statement was made in response to questions by Senator Donnell (R-Mo.). It generally was regarded as a setback for the alliance with friendly European nations.

Later the two senators went to the department for a conference with Secretary of State Acheson, lasting nearly two hours. Neither would comment afterwards.

Hickenlooper, a foreign relations committee member, told a reporter he agrees that this country ought not to make a blanket commitment to fight.

There was no evidence that Connally and Vandenberg had something of the same sort in mind. They told their colleagues they are opposed to any treaty which does not reserve to congress its final decision on whether this country should go to war.

The Connally-Vandenberg statement was made in response to questions by Senator Donnell (R-Mo.). It generally was regarded as a setback for the alliance with friendly European nations.

Temperatures Moderate Over The Northern Plains States

By The Associated Press
Fresh ground blizzards put a virtual halt to road travel over storm-battered southern Wyoming and southern Idaho today as flood dangers mounted higher in the blizzard-stricken areas of Nebraska.

Winds diminished and temperatures moderated over the northern plains states, giving new hope to relief workers that digging operations will not be further hampered.

In Washington, fresh falls of snow blocked Snoqualmie and Blewett passes in the Cascade mountains and cross-state motor travel was halted. Snoqualmie pass, the state's major east-west highway, had been open only two days when a new blizzard blocked it yesterday. Trains moved with difficulty across the Cascades.

A blizzard which swept over Boise, Ida., was the heaviest local

Latrobe Quads Are A Year Old Today

Latrobe, Feb. 15.—(P)—The Zavadas quadruplets, almost reared from measles, got a nibble of their first birthday cake today.

John Michael, the lone male, had two more new teeth. That makes six for him while his sisters haven't shown any yet.

"I guess we'll have to buy the girls' store teeth," laughed their mother, Mrs. Andrew Zavadas.

Dr. J. Wiley Hartman, who delivered the quads a year ago today sent four rocking horses. And Dr. Paul Titus, Pittsburgh pediatrician, sent red and white outfits—a suit for John Michael and pinafores for his sisters—Bernadette, Barbara Rose and Anna Mary.

How does Mrs. Zavadas, the mother of a six-year-old boy, feel about the quads' first year?

"I can't complain," she declared. "I think we've had very good babies. They sleep all night and never keep us awake."

KEY GROUP OF LAWMAKERS CALLED TO WHITE HOUSE FOR CONFERENCE WITH EXECUTIVE

Washington, Feb. 15.—(P)—House Democratic leaders said today President Truman will make a statement Thursday explaining his recommendations for expanding social security.

House Speaker Sam Rayburn told reporters after a White House conference that the president will discuss published reports that increased tax legislation is being put off indefinitely in order to give social security measures the right of way. Mr. Truman has asked for a $4,000,000,000 tax boost.

Rayburn indicated plainly that the president will spike reports that the tax program is being abandoned.

Rayburn's remarks came after a one-hour conference the President called with house ways and means committee Democrats and others to go over the entire social security program.

"No determinations were made as to coverage or amounts for old age assistance and other benefits," Rayburn said.

Rayburn said the president discussed social security very frankly, got the reaction of the conferees, and stood on his previous messages to congress on the subject.

Federal financial aid through the social security program for all needy persons was proposed today in legislation introduced by Rep. Flood (D-Ill.).

Such public assistance, on a federal-state matching basis, now is available only for needy aged persons, the blind, and for dependent children.

Forand's measure proposes also that the federal government make larger contributions in states—many of them in the south—with small per-capita incomes.

The ways and means committee has put tax legislation in a cooler while it tackles social security, beginning February 28.

Democratic leaders say that is all right with the president. A tax-boosting bill might do better if later it appears that Congress will appropriate more money than present tax laws will bring in.

Although he has not yet given details of his social security proposal, Mr. Truman has indicated to congress that this is about what he wants:

1. The addition of 20,000,000 farm workers, domestic workers and self-employed to the 30,000,000 persons now eligible for old age pensions. Benefits would be increased by at least 50 per cent.

2. Increase in unemployment insurance.

3. A new disability insurance, to provide federal benefits for a worker when he is sick, or if he becomes permanently disabled.

4. Health insurance, under which the government would pay the doctor bills of a worker and his family. This, too, is new. It already is under attack by the American Medical Association which has proposed instead a voluntary health insurance program.

To finance such a vast program, the administration may propose a six per cent social security tax. Three per cent probably would be collected from salaries up to $4,800 which would make the maximum pay envelope tax $144 against a present top of $30—with a similar percentage paid from the boss' payroll.

If the whole program is approved by Congress, the tax would become substantially higher when the health insurance got into full swing.

FATALLY BURNED

New Castle, Feb. 15.—(P)—Burns suffered while at work in the Baltimore & Ohio Railroad yards caused the death of Samuel Clements, 41, yesterday. His clothing caught fire after he spilled gasoline while filling a tractor gas tank.

SOUND TRUCK BILL

Harrisburg, Feb. 15.—(P)—Any person operating a sound truck on commonwealth roads would be subject to $100 fine or 30 days in jail under a bill submitted in the state senate last night by Sen. C. Arthur Blass (R-Erie).

ERIE BABY DIES OF SCALDS DURING BATH

Erie, Feb. 15.—(P)—James Miles Hall, 18 months old, died in St. Vincent's Hospital yesterday from scald burns suffered in his bathtub last Friday.

The mother, bathing the baby in their home at North Girard R. D. 1, was called to an adjoining room to care for her four-month-old daughter. While Mrs. Hall was gone, James turned on the hot water.

Protesting Landlords Make Threats of Mass Evictions

Washington, Feb. 15.—(P)—Protesting landlords descended upon Capitol Hill today, some of them carrying threats of mass eviction of their tenants—if Congress continues rent controls.

They were fresh from a rally at a downtown hotel in which they gave standing ovations to speakers calling for such evictions. They dropped one proposal for a resolution committing them to "defiance" of rent controls. Then they adopted one pledging unalterable opposition to any form of "property control." The group gathered under the auspices of the Property Owners Association of America.

The more violent opponents of rent controls got an indirect warning from Rep. Patman (D-Tex.) that they are hurting their case. Patman, a top-ranking member of the house banking committee, told reporters:

"I want property owners to have a square deal, but it is awfully hard to do that when people threaten to defy the law. People have the right to present their grievances to congress. But it is something else to advocate that people not obey the law, which is anarchy."

The property owners ascended Capitol Hill to present their protests to the banking committee after spokesmen for the administration and tenants had urged that Congress strengthen, broaden and continue rent controls for two years.

At the property owners' rally preceding the banking committee hearings, one group displayed the sample of a poster for use on rental property. It said:

"No apartment in this building for rent as long as there is rent control."

Important Announcement!!

On March 1st, 1949, the subscription price of the TIMES-MIRROR, for delivery to the house, by carrier, will be increased $1.00 per year, making the new subscription rate $10.00 per year. The rate by mail will also be increased $1.00 per year.

This increase is brought about by the fact that we have been forced to increase the wages of the employees in our mechanical department 22½ per cent, or $12.00 a week, for each employee. This same increase is reflected throughout the entire plant.

Newsprint paper has increased in the past three years more than 50 per cent; linotype metal has increased nearly 200 per cent. All materials and services entering into the publication of the TIMES-MIRROR have increased in like proportion.

Even with this increase, the subscription price of the TIMES-MIRROR is much lower than any of the papers in this section of the State. We list below some of the papers and their subscription rates, for home delivery:

Meadville Tribune-Republican	$15.60 per year
Franklin, Pa., News-Herald	14.00 per year
DuBois Courier Express	12.48 per year
Homestead Daily Messenger	12.48 per year
New Castle News	15.35 per year
Titusville Herald	12.40 per year
Jamestown Post-Journal	15.60 per year
Oil City Derrick	15.60 per year
Kittanning Leader	15.35 per year
Sharon Herald	15.60 per year
Bradford Era	14.00 per year
Washington, Pa., Reporter	15.60 per year
Jeannette News-Dispatch (5 days)	$12.50 per year
Donora, Pa., Daily Citizen (5 days)	10.40 per year
Ambridge, Pa., Daily Citizen (5 days)	12.75 per year
Cannonsburg, Pa., Daily Notes (5 days)	11.25 per year

A majority of the above papers are published six days a week, but even so, the home delivered price of the TIMES-MIRROR, per copy, at the new rate, is much lower than most of them.

The average rate by mail in the 1st and 2nd zones of the above papers is from $7.50 to $15.00 per year.

By taking advantage of Dollar Days, Friday and Saturday, February 18 and 19, you can save $2.00 per year on your paper; $1.00 off on Dollar Days and $1.00 saved by paying before the advance.

Times Topics

CALLED TO CLARION

Mrs. Charles F. Lemmon, West Fifth avenue, left Saturday for Clarion, called there by the illness of her mother, Mrs. F. H. Greer.

GAME COMMISSIONER

John C. Herman, of Dauphin, started a new term of the State Game Commission today with state confirmation. He was renamed last week by Gov. James H. Duff.

VIEW NEW HOSPITAL

Scores of persons from the area Saturday and Sunday motored to Union City to view the new Stem Memorial Hospital which was opened to the public for the first time. The formal dedication ceremonies were carried out Saturday and following that guided tours were conducted for the hundreds of area residents who visited the institution.

HAS NEW POSITION

Sports fans of the city will be interested to know that former New York Yankee Ray Caldwell has joined the ranks of employees of the Exchange Hotel where he is pursuing duties behind the bar. Baseball enthusiasts will find plenty to talk about as the 1949 season draws near. Ray was among the best of the pitchers of his day.

LOCOMOTIVES RUSTING

Diesel locomotives are rapidly supplanting the steam types on the Erie Railroad. Ten of them were dismantled at Meadville last month and two more have been torn down this month. Most of the parts are sold for scrap. Nineteen tenders were recently sold to junk dealers. An official of the road says the transition to diesels will be gradual and eventually steam locomotives will disappear from the road.

THREE TAKES FRIGHT

Dr. A. E. Tate of Cory almost lost his automobile by theft Sunday morning. When the physician attempted to start the car about 10 a. m. Sunday it was found that the ignition wires had been cut and an attempt made to cross them and thereby start the vehicle without a key. It is thought the thieves were frightened off by a light being turned on in the residence when the doctor was called to the phone.

MOOSE MEETING

The regular semi-monthly meeting of the Warren Lodge of Moose will be held Wednesday at eight o'clock. This is one of the most important meetings of the year. The nominating committee will be appointed and two life memberships will be given away in the "Annual Dues" contest. Following the business session a program of sound moving pictures will be presented and a lunch will be served.

FURTHER CROWDING

Cory's schools, already overcrowded according to State standards, will be jammed beyond capacity during the next six years, a report of the pre-school census, recently conducted by the Parent Teacher Association, showed. From now until 1954—the period which can be forecast by the census—the public schools will be hit each fall with an influx of new students numbering in excess of 160.

STEALS COP'S CAP

Cory Journal: A Cory man with a penchant for stealing unusual things early this morning wound up in city jail but was later released without charges being preferred. Warren White of West Columbus avenue spent from 2:30 to 8 a. m. in the lockup after a call from Union City police stated he had stolen a patrolman's cap.

DELICATE OPERATION

Thirteen-month-old daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Warren Fulton of 510 South Perry street, was given two days to live when she was taken to the Cleveland Clinic last week. In an emergency operation last Thursday doctors removed a brain tumor "the size of a grapefruit," her father said, and by last night she had passed a crisis and was expected to live if she continued to improve at her past rate. More than that, she is expected to regain her sight which she lost about a month ago. The process may take some time now that the pressure is off her optic nerves, but her crossed eyes have straightened out already. Mr. Fulton said the doctors told him the tumor was the largest known to have been removed successfully from a child's brain. The operation will go down in medical history, he was told. The growth was caused either by a fall or was there at birth. It was located in the forefront of the brain over the right temple and had grown to large it pressed upon the optic nerves and the nerves that control temperature of the body.

EXTENDED FORECAST

Extended forecast for the period Tuesday, Feb. 15, thru Sunday, Feb. 20:
Western Pennsylvania, Ohio and West Virginia: Temperature will average about eight degrees above normal north portion and about ten degrees above normal south portion; cooler Wednesday, warmer Thursday becoming somewhat cooler Friday or Saturday; rain Friday and Saturday with total amount three quarters to one inch.

Milk Prices For January Are Fixed

New York, Feb. 15.—(P)—Dairy farmers will receive a uniform price of $4.84 per hundredweight for January milk deliveries to approved plants in the New York milkshed. A hundredweight is about 47 quarts.

The figure, announced by C. J. Blanford, market administrator of the New York metropolitan milk marketing area, compares with a price of $5.31 for January, 1948.

Blanford also announced a producer butterfat differential of 5.4 cents for each tenth of a pound of fat above or below the 3.5 per cent standard.

The administration said statistics from the January milk poll showed the consumption of fluid milk in the marketing area slightly up over consumption a year ago.

The marketing area includes New York City and Nassau, Suffolk and Westchester counties.

It was the first time since February, 1948, that consumption had increased over the corresponding month of the previous year, Blanford said.

Rabbit Breeders Plan Show In June

The Warren County Domestic Rabbit Association has announced its annual show on June 17, 18 and 19 to be held at Island Park in Youngsville.

The show will be the grand final of the New York-Pennsylvania circuit and Thomas Stock has been appointed superintendent of the show.

James Blyth, secretary of the American Rabbit and Cavy Breeders Association has been secured as judge and all local rabbit breeders are urged to bear the dates in mind in order to help make this show the best ever held in Youngsville.

Three Sign Up For Flight Instructions

V. S. (Slim) King, manager of the Warren airport, said today that three Warren men, John Newmaker, Derwin Stenstrom and Walter Gleason, have signed up for the flight instructor's training course under the GI bill of rights at the Warren airport.

King said that, contrary to widespread rumors, veterans can still sign up for flight training under the GI bill, and invited all those who are interested to visit the airport.

Considerable other activity is under way at the airport. King recently sold a Fairchild PT 26 plane to Walter Gleason, and major overhauling work on a twin-engine Cessna is nearing completion in the airport's workshop.

Akron Team Is In Lead In ABC Congress

Atlantic City, N. J., Feb. 15.—(P)—Three changes occurred in the standings of the first ten in the five-man event of the 46th annual American Bowling Congress tournament here last night, but the leading Leon's Tavern team of Akron, Ohio, was not displaced. The Olympic Realty five of Los Angeles, led by Bill Fiesch, and the first "name" team to roll in the tournament failed in its bid for the top berth when they posted a 2818 total. The Leon's Tavern team took first place Sunday with a 2856 total.

In another minor change among the team leaders the Bamberger and Robbins team of Wilmington, Del., rolled into a tie for eighth position with a 2745 count.
A new leader was established in the doubles event when Edwin Appelle and Zeke Trody, of Detroit, jumped out in front with a 2,225 score.

JUST A REMINDER

RALPH E. RUGGABER
Ridgway Record—A funeral service was held Thursday afternoon at 2 o'clock at the King Funeral Home for Ralph E. Ruggaber, of Warren, former Ridgway young man, who died Sunday in the Warren General hospital. Rev. H. L. Hess, pastor of the Evangelical and Reformed church, officiated and was assisted by Rev. Wm. Lane, of Warren, Pa. pastor of the Reformed church in that place.

Rev. Hess opened the service with the text "The Lord says because I live, ye too shall live." He also read Wordsworth's poem, "The Happy Warrior."

Rev. Lane had meditation and prayer. Following the church service the Warren Lodge of Elks conducted a brief service at the King Funeral Home and the Elks' burial ritual at the grave in Fairview cemetery.

Mrs. Harry Gulnac, Jr., sang the "23rd Psalm", Mrs. Samuel Irvin, pianist.

pallbearers were: James Moran, Clarence Berdine, Vance Wright, Jerry Landers, Horace Gorton and Franklin Henry, Warren.

Among the large delegation of members of the Warren Lodge of Elks, Warren Lodge of Moose and the Conewango Country Club of Warren, of which deceased was an active member, attending the funeral the following were included: R. A. Porter, Harrisburg; Mr. and Mrs. Nels Anderson and son, Dean, of the Warren Baking Co.; Robert Williams, Lawrence Linder, Mrs. Gerald Landers, James Moran, Mrs. Thomas Herron, Horace Gorton, Jeffrey Maurer, Warren, Pa.; David Anderson, Wm. Wanner and son, Bernell, of Bradford.

Mr. Ruggaber was a member of the Evangelical and Reformed church of Ridgway.

LYDIA HILDUM CARLSON
Services were held at the Leo D. Gibson Funeral Home at 2:30 p. m. Monday for Mrs. Lydia Hildum Carlson, 909 Hubborn avenue, Erie, former resident of this city. The rites were conducted by the Rev. A. Kimmel, pastor of First Evangelical United Brethren church, and the following served as bearers for interment in Oakland cemetery: Thomas H. Hildum, Richard F. Hildum, Harry Atherton, George C. Hildum, Harry E. Hildum, and Claude Strangan.

Those who came from away were Charles O. Carlson, Mr. and Mrs. C. E. Strangan, Mr. and Mrs. Joseph Varro, Erie; Mr. and Mrs. Harry Atherton, Buffalo, N. Y.; Mrs. Harry S. Young, O'Leck Haven.

HOBERT H. HILLARD
Hobart H. Hillard, aged 80, and a lifelong resident of Endeavor, died yesterday at the family home after an illness dating since September. Surviving are ten children: Mrs. Hilda Wright, Clifford and Orion Hillard, Endeavor; Mrs. John Scott, Erie; Howard H. Hillard and Mrs. James Baker, Warren; William Hillard, Akron, O.; John Hillard, Meadville; Mrs. George Rivars and Mrs. Howard Wilson, Oil City; also a number of grandchildren.

Services in his memory will be held from the family home at 2:30 p. m. Wednesday, with the Rev. H. M. Stevenson, Methodist minister of Tidouite, officiating. Interment will follow in the Tidouite cemetery.

MRS. MARY FAGLEY
Mrs. Mary Fagley, formerly of Crown, died at the home of her daughter, Mrs. Josephine Ferry, 513 West Fifth avenue, at midnight on Sunday.

She was born in Clarion county near Scotch Hill on July 12, 1850, and spent her entire life in that vicinity until coming here to make her home with her daughter about three years ago. She was a member of the Roman Catholic church of Crown for 60 years.

Surviving in addition to her daughter here are three other children: Mrs. Catherine Ferry, of Olean, N. Y.; George Fagley, of Crown; and Frank Fagley, of Camden, N. J.; 12 grandchildren and 16 great-grandchildren.

Removal has been made to the McDonald Funeral Home in Marienville where friends may call beginning this afternoon.

Services in her memory will be held from the church at Crown with mass being sung at 10 o'clock on Thursday morning.

Defend yourself against winter colds with an Electric Bed Cover

Doctors agree that rest, warmth, and comfort can definitely counteract factors that lead to colds. Electric covers can reduce susceptibility to colds resulting from these factors.

Medical science has determined that colds follow the breakdown of the body's anti-cold defenses... that this breakdown is caused by certain definite factors.

These factors include chilling, lack of sleep, physical fatigue and anxiety.

Today, thanks to electric bed coverings, you can reduce susceptibility to colds resulting from these factors.

That's because automatic electric covers bring you the deep sleep, relaxing rest, comforting warmth and release from nervous tension that are vital to cold defense. They protect you from changes in room temperature, and changes in body temperature. They relax nervous tension by enveloping your body in soothing gentle warmth.

Give yourself and your family this priceless gift of better sleep, this new defense against colds.

Features For Band Concert Announced

Director Harry Summers, announcing today some of his plans for the annual mid-winter band concert, states the soloist representing the Dragon Band will be Barbara Schmutz, trombonist, who will be accompanied at the piano by Dorothy Bohren.

The Second Band or Duncarees, will feature a clarinet quartet composed of Sylvia Smith, James Valone, Robert Cowden and Jim Fuetthart.

The concert, always one of the big attractions of the winter music calendar, will be given in Beatty Junior High School gym on Thursday evening of this week, getting under way at eight o'clock.

Mr. Summers reminds there will be a few tickets still available at the door on the night of the performance.

By ARCHIE JOSELYN

Chapter 3

"Ah, that! There is fur, farm produce—much treasure bottled up by the French! What a chance for a man of imagination! Much has already been arranged. Though some remains to be done. And so that I may do it, you will proceed to New Orleans on the ship which has now at anchor, 'Loose off-shore—the Lovely Maria'."

"She is a sweet ship, the Maria, built for a privateerman Strong, with long guns well concealed. Innocent looking as a maiden at her prayers. You will arrive there as myself. Don Fernando Gonzales—sailing arrogantly up to the city. You will swagger, you will afford the Montforts the satisfaction they demanded—giving it to them as a Gonzales always gives, and perhaps not wholly to their liking! That is a sharp point when they must risk it."

"That can perhaps be taken care of," Rivers conceded.

"Assuredly. I observed how you used your blade. You not only look like a Gonzales, you handle your sword like one. While you are thus occupied and every eye upon you, I will be occupied too—most profitably. I have another ship, a twin to the Lovely Maria—the Gay Countess. We will come quietly, like a forbidden lover. Slipping past the city, up the river by night. When you have disposed of your chore, there will be work for you and the Lovely Maria, a full and profitable share in the enterprise."

Though he gave no more details, Rivers understood. This was to be a giant venture in freebootery—on a scale deliberately calculated to have international consequences. And with a fine profit in the offing, if they could carry it through.

Most of which suited Rivers well enough. And it was not a thing which he could stop, in any case. Unless he took part, he would be hanged as a common felon, and the plot, already laid, would proceed. He might be useful, but he was not invaluable.

Likewise, this act, if successful, would reopen the river to the trace of the Americans, and that was worth any price! Could not they see there in Washington, that here was a vast empire in the west, which must be fought for? Particularly when a man of such boundless ambition as Napoleon dreamed of having the world at his feet?

HE was not so trusting of Spaniards, or of his fellow-men, as to accept what had been told him at face value. There would be risk, and probably some unpleasant surprises. But if Don Fernando had pledged the Montforts to return at a stated time and afford them satisfaction, that was understandable.

He could handle that part as well as Gonzales. Better, possibly. There was nothing which any Spaniard could do which he, Jean Rivers, could not do better.

Guards surrounded the house. Once aboard the Lovely Maria, he would be ostensibly near captain, but with a crew alert to see that he did as he was ordered. Here was the iron hand beneath the velvet glove.

Don Fernando was eying him expectantly.

"Well?" he challenged. "Does it not stir your blood, the prospect? And is it not a fair offer—considering everything?"

"Better than I'd expected. When do I sail?"

"At the turn of the tide. Within a couple of hours. Meanwhile, you must have dry clothes, a bit of refreshment. Remember, you go as Don Fernando Gonzales. It is a good name in Spain, a name at which people tremble here in Florida. Live up to it."

"There'll be no trouble about that," Rivers assured him lightly. "The name of Rivers, sir, is as proud as that of any Spaniard who ever sailed the Main."

"MONSTER" TELEVISION

The steady coaxial progress of television is going to cause some changes in the American way of life as we have known it for the last 25 years. For one thing, it threatens to restore to home and fireside an importance they haven't enjoyed since the horseless carriage put the whole nation on the road.

It also threatens the setup of the entertainment business, particularly radio. The consensus of the prophets of broadcasting seems to be that television is going to turn upon and destroy the parent that bore it. Performers, producers and manufacturers have been warning that radio was doomed almost from the day that video added Howdy Dood to our cultural heritage.

This may seem only mildly interesting to the average citizen unless he has developed an early allergy to television. But it would cause quite a shakeup in the business and financial world. Radio manufacturing and broadcasting investments run into huge figures.

Amidst predictions of gloom, a minority report by John W. Craig may be worth noting. Mr. Craig is general manager of Crosley division of Avco Manufacturing Corp. And he says his company is going to keep right on making radios. It's going to make television sets, too. But he doesn't think that the infant is going to do away with the ancestor.

He lists some persuasive reasons for his stand. One is that radio permits more mobility than television. Today a housewife can pursue her domestic tasks at the same time a soap opera heroine pursues her troubled career. The housewife can believe that Portia is facing life without having to sit down and watch Portia do it.

He likewise notes that eyes do tire after a long stretch of video. This, he believes, is another point for radio. "Have you ever heard of 'ear strain'?" he asks. Maybe he meant that as a rhetorical question, but he's getting a direct answer from us. Yes. However, we concede him his point.

For a clincher, Mr. Craig recalls such earlier jeremiads as these: The telegraph would replace the postal system; the telephone would do away with the telegraph; radio communications would scrap the telephone. Automobiles were going to doom railroads. So were airplanes. Sound movies would kill the legitimate theater. Radio would make phonographs obsolete and steal most of the newspapers' advertising revenue. And so on.

Mr. Craig thinks that in 10 years the amount of radio listening time and the number of radios in our homes and cars may be reduced by about half. But he thinks that 100 per cent television coverage of the country is many years away. Radio will shrink, he believes, but not disappear. We are inclined to agree. In fact, the new competition may improve radio by forcing the broadcasters to throw out a lot of deadwood and strike for better quality.

Having experienced our full share of errors, and then some, during the past ten months we receive encouragement from a passage lifted from the editorial page of the distinguished and capably edited Titusville Herald. We quote: As to errors appearing in The Herald that is true and will continue to be, we are sorry to say. It cannot be otherwise where so much news is handled with an eye constantly on the clock. We have been in this business now for more than half a century and we have yet to encounter a newspaper that did not make frequent mistakes. We never expect to find a newspaper that does not err from time to time.

"Schuman Shuts Door on Stalin's Peace Feelers"—newspaper headline. With his intimate acquaintance with Communist anatomy, the French foreign minister wouldn't need to look outside the door to know that the feelers were attached to an octopus. So Schuman slammed the door.

A London truck driver's wife is expected to give birth to quadruplets in April. This would be the third set of four born in Britain in the last 11 months. The response to Sir Stafford Cripps' pleas for production and more production is finally getting into high gear.

Scientists have developed a machine which will cut slices of tissue 1/254,000 of an inch thick. We predict that this instrument will be welcomed for general use in preparing the ultimate development of the restaurant ham sandwich.

Speaking of the haylift, has anybody seen any of those elderly scoffers who tell you every year that "We don't have winters like we did when I was a boy?"

They Were Disillusioned Long Ago

YEARS AGO IN WARREN

Interesting Items Taken From The Warren Evening Times

Smethport is the scene of a sensational discovery. According to experts, a snake, definitely ascertained to be a boa constrictor, was found on a banana stalk in a Grand Union store. When full grown, boas are from ten to twelve feet long, but this one was a mere five feet. . . . The Grand Union grocery store in Warren is selling hamburger, 2 lbs. for 35c, calls hams for 12 1/2c a pound, and sirloin steak for 38c. (Nowadays it costs 76c to get a piece of steak big enough to cover a black eye.)

The Twenty Years Ago column, 1909, states that the business of Smith-Horton Wholesale Grocery has become so great that the company is preparing to lay a track to the warehouse to take care of the business. The spur will be laid from Fourth avenue up Chestnut to the plant. . . . The Y.M.C.A. ping pong tournament for boys has entered its final stages. Finals between Fred Maurer and Jack Perry, of the senior division are to be played off. In the junior division, are Edwin Africa, Kenneth Burch and John Driscoll. . . . Henry Shippe of Youngsville has received his commission as Justice of the Peace and held his first hearing this morning when a drunk was charged with being disorderly. Mr. Shippe succeeds Albert W. Little Courtesies make life more pleasant

On party-line telephones too, it's the little courtesies that count.

Little courtesies, for example, like keeping calls reasonably brief. Like spacing calls so that others may use the line in the intervals. Like hanging up gently when you find the line in use.

Party-line neighbors who take the lead in courtesy find these favors returned. They enjoy better service. So do others on the line.

Keen Hand of Lobbyists Shows Through Hoover Plan Protests

BY PETER EDSON
NEA Washington Correspondent

WASHINGTON—(NEA)—Highest pressure lobbying job Washington has seen in a long time is the organized campaign to keep the Army Corps of Engineers from being deprived of its civilian flood control, rivers and harbors work by ex-President Hoover's Commission on Organization of the Executive Branch of the Government.

Principal weapon used this far is a barrage of telegrams. Over 2000 wires have rained down on Sen. John L. McClellan of Arkansas, chairman of the Committee on Expenditures. In addition, several of the individual senators on the committee admit having received from 50 to 100 telegrams and letters apiece.

The whole business looks like something that West Virginia Sen. Harley M. Kilgore's proposed lobbying investigation might well look into. It would take a long and careful investigation, tracing every one of these wires to its source, to determine what organizations inspired the campaign.

President Hoover has blamed the Corps of Engineers itself for having mobilized its friends. That might be hard to prove, for there is a specific law against such activity by a government agency. But the effect is the same. Even a cursory examination of the wires reveals definite patterns from recognizable pressure groups.

PRIME MOVERS have apparently been the so-called "water lobby," made up of organizations interested in flood control, navigation, rivers and harbors—plus the Associated General Contractors of America.

For the water lobby, the National Rivers and Harbors Congress, which has a number of congressmen on its directorate, admits having sent out flocks of telegrams to interested organizations, calling their attention to proposed legislation which does not specifically exempt Corps of Engineers from reorganization plans.

Associated General Contractors in its Jan. 28 Washington letter called its members' attention to "Government Reorganization and the Corps of Engineers." The letter did not tell its members to wire their congressmen. It just gave all necessary information, including names of committee members and numbers of bills, S. 528 and H. R. 1559.

Results from furnishing this information are obvious. Scores of contractors wired in. State Associations of General Contractors wired from New York, New Jersey, California and Washington. Of 20 protests from New York, 16 were from contractors.

One telegram from Los Angeles signed: "N. M. Ball and Sons, Harms and Parker, Inc." said more frankly than the rest: "After completing several million dollars worth of work under Corps of Engineers, we found them very efficient and feel that no reorganization plan affecting that department is necessary."

INFLUENCE of water lobby organizations was far more potent, however. Wires have poured in from 40 states. Biggest catches of telegrams were 130 from Arkansas and 137 from California. Florida citizens sent 62, Washington state 41, Nebraska, Minnesota, Indiana, Illinois, Georgia and Oregon sent over 30.

The whole campaign was smart. There were no identical form wires. The short wires, in varying language, hit the same theme, over and over again: "Reference bill S. 528 we oppose curtailing civil functions Corps of Engineers." Norfolk, Neb., Bridge and Construction Co. wired: "We ask your opposition to S. 528. We are definitely opposed to government agencies replacing private enterprise." There are no such proposals in the bill, indicating some people were misinformed. But all this is powerful pressure which the Senate will find hard to resist. In two previous attempts to put through government reorganization bills, Army Corps of Engineers was exempted. Mr. Hoover says if they do it again, it will be the end of reorganization.

Martha Littlefield Becomes Bride Of H. F. Baumgrotz

Miss Martha Dorella Littlefield became the bride of Henry F. Baumgrotz, Jr., in a double ring ceremony which took place at 2:30 p. m. Saturday, February 5, in Grace Methodist church, the Rev. H. L. Knappenberger officiating.

The bride is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. C. L. Littlefield, 109 1/2 South Carver street, and the bridegroom is the son of Mrs. Barbara Baumgrotz, 8 Oak street, and Henry F. Baumgrotz, Sr., of Erie.

Miss Charlotte Host attended the bride and Wesley Christensen was best man for the bridegroom.

The bride wore a gown of white tulle, fashioned with sweetheart neckline and complimented with a pearl necklace. Her veil fell fingertip length from a headpiece of seed pearls and she carried a colonial bouquet of white carnations with a shower of white satin streamers, white hyacinths and fern.

The maid of honor wore a frock of gold colored satin, with matching headpiece, and carried a colonial bouquet of blue iris and yellow daffodils.

The bride's mother was dressed in gray, with black accessories, while the bridegroom's mother wore a navy blue print and black accessories. Each had a corsage of white carnations and hyacinths.

Guests were from Buffalo, Warren and vicinity and included Dan Downey, 82 year old resident of Tona.

A reception followed during the evening hours at Clever's Inn for thirty or more guests.

The newlyweds are residing at 8 Oak street.

DESSERT-LUNCHEON

The February dessert-luncheon, held at the YWCA activities building Friday afternoon, was attended by 42 women, and was served from a table decorated by Mrs. Roy Hertz and made attractive with a Valentine theme. Others serving on the Friday committee were Mrs. W. F. Bennett and Miss Edith Langdale.

The blessing was asked by Mrs. Milton Perry, with Mrs. Carl Whipple serving as hostess and presiding the day's speaker, Mrs. Warren Carlin. The latter delighted her audience with a paper titled "Ladies of the White House", in which she described the part played by women who served as hostesses in our nation's capital during the various presidencies. Her presentation proved both informative and entertaining, and contained much of amusement, as well.

Announcement was made that the next dessert-luncheon will be held on March 11.

WITH YOUNGSMEN

EASTERN STAR CHAPTER

Youngsville, Feb. 15.—Following the regular meeting of Youngsville Chapter, Order of the Eastern Star, past matrons and patrons of the organization were entertained. The tables were made attractive with an arrangement of candles and a valentine motif. Refreshments were served by the February committee, Mary Kay, Elizabeth Canfield, Hazel Stillings, Edith Husted, Elaine Halden, Ruth Henton, and Aline Henton. Worthy Matron Belle Sample presented gifts to all past matrons.

Officers of the Eastern Star entertained recently at the home of Mrs. Alice Streeter in a shower party for Mrs. Phyllis Hendrickson. A cooperative dinner was enjoyed and Mrs. Hendrickson was showered with pleasing gifts for her baby daughter, Kathleen Marie Hendrickson.

Cards were featured later in the evening as entertainment.

ALTAR SOCIETY

St. Joseph's Altar Society members will hold their regular meeting Thursday night, with services in the church at 7:30, followed by a business meeting in the club-rooms. A white elephant party will be held, and each member is asked to bring an article for this affair. Card playing and other games will be enjoyed and the committee in charge of Mrs. Richard Hines, will serve refreshments. All members are asked to be present.

HOSPITAL AUXILIARY

Members of Warren General Hospital Auxiliary will have a work bee at the nurses' home at 1:30 p. m. Friday.

Auxiliary reports show that 27 members present for the two meetings held during January included several new members and a total of 121 articles completed during the work sessions.

SPAGHETTI DINNER

It is announced by the American Legion Auxiliary, Post 185, that on March 1st a committee of Italian-American members, with Mrs. Louis Vicini of Weldbank as chairman, will put on for the public a typical Italian spaghetti dinner with all the trimmings. The affair will be in the Legion Home in Pennsylvania avenue, west.

Here's where you'll shine in '49

ONE LOOK—and you're plenty sure of that!

Where else is the bold, long look so beautifully carried out in every detail from massive grille to smoothly faired-in tail-light?

Where else so much roomy comfort for six big people, carried out not only in the width of seat-cushions but also in their softness, to add space overhead?

Where else a brighter outlook, far-ranging as an eagle's, from windshields both higher and wider, corner posts narrower and easier to see around, glass area stepped up a full 22% in Sedans?

Where else the cushiony softness of all-coil springing plus oversize tires and extra-wide rims? Where else the brilliance of Fireball power, Hi-Poised mounted for smoothness, built with self-setting valve lifters for lasting quiet?

Above all—where else but Buick will you find the super-smoothness of Dynaflo Drive in which oil does it all and no gears ever shift?

Where else can you get all this—including Dynaflo—at such favorable prices? Where does today's dollar buy so much of smartness and size, of room and comfort, of outlook and driving ease?

Go see for yourself—by matching price tags. Your Buick dealer will proudly show his—and take your order any time—with or without a car to trade.

WELL!—Near Boulder City, Nev., Art Klinger, a gas station operator, started out to dig a well. He didn't find any water, but he did strike a 12-foot deposit of quartz which contained a sufficient amount of commercial grade gold ore to start a modest gold rush. Klinger is inspecting a bar of ore taken from "well."

BIRTHDAY PARTY—Whor Frodo, a Labrador retriever and the world's only skiing dog, celebrated his first birthday at Sun Valley, Ida. He did himself proud. The cake was a raw, juicy hamburger with one candle on it. Ketchup and mustard made a tasty icing. Frodo didn't drink a coffee, but enjoyed the cigar.

Experienced Titusville Grapplers Beat Warren High Wrestlers 35-13

Warren High School's Varsity wrestlers, coached by Bob Jewell, defeated their four-game match last night by dropping a 3-0 decision to the more experienced Titusville grapplers before a packed crowd in Beatty gym.

The performance of the Dragons was much better last night than the Rockets than in the scrap of the season when the Titans were blanked at Titusville, 0-0.

Donald Dreimann, Warren 133-pounder, scored the first five points in the first round when he pinned Jim Gustafson in one minute and 57 seconds of the second round. This was the first time in an upward of three years that Dreimann has pinned an opponent's shoulder to the mat.

The 133-pound match also resulted in five points for Warren as Donald Anderson pinned Jim Gustafson just 21½ seconds after the buzzer ending the second round.

Final three points for the Jew-grapplers resulted in a decision for John Johnson over John Howe in the 154-pound division. Scoring this match gave Johnson three advantage points, two for a takedown and one for an escape. There were 12 matches in the set, ranging from the 88-pound division through the 185-pound division. The 88-pounder, however, was staged as an exhibition, and not count in the team score. Bill Hewitt, of the Warren Borough Police force, was the referee for all of the matches. Match summary (figures in parentheses indicate the advantage points):

EXHIBITION
88-pound class: Norm Nilson, Titusville, defeated Jim Sturdevant (9-8). Did not count in team score.

MATCH SCORING
85 pounds: Edgar Daye, Titusville, defeated Stuart Wimer (11-0). 3-0.

106 pounds: Ronald McIntyre, Titusville, pinned Marshall Olney in 1:15 of first round. 6-0.

112 pounds: Don Crocker, Titusville, pinned Robert Shaw in 0:53 of second round. 5-0.

120 pounds: Dick Nilson, Titusville, pinned Johan Stohl in 2:01 of third round. 5-0.

127 pounds: Bob Morris, Titusville, pinned Roger Mathis, 1:02 of second round. 5-0.

133 pounds: Dale Dreimann, Warren, pinned Jim Huber in 1:57 of second round. 5-0.

138 pounds: Ronald Anderson, Warren, pinned Dick Gustafson in 2:08½ of second round. 5-0.

145 pounds: Howard Bloom, Titusville, defeated Bruce Forsgren (3-0). 3-0.

154 pounds: John Johnson, Warren, defeated John Howe (3-0). 3-0.

165 pounds: Harry Warner, Titusville, defeated Don Peterson (4-0). 3-0.

185 pounds: Derwood Myers, Titusville, pinned Don Anderson in 0:51½ of the second round. 5-0.

Dragons Battle Youngsville; Sheffield Takes on Johnnies

Warren High Dragons will be gunning for their 18th victory in 23 starts tonight when they tangle with the Youngsville Eagles in a non-league affair on the Youngsville court.

The game will get under way at 8:15 o'clock, and will be broadcast over WNAE-FM. A preliminary is slated for 7 p. m.

The Dragons opened their season with a 50-20 triumph over the Eagles on Beatty court. Since then, however, Youngsville has packed a lot of valuable game experience under its belt, and a victory for Warren is not expected to be quite so easy. The Eagles also will have the advantage of playing on their own court.

Looking ahead, the Dragons face Oil City in an all-important Section Two scrap at Oil City Friday night, and then play a home match with Erie Academy in Beatty gym Saturday night.

Other games on tonight's card pair Sheffield Wolverines and Johnsonburg in an Allegheny Mountain League scrap at Sheffield; Tidioute and Pleasantville on the latter's court in an Upper Allegheny Valley League tilt; Bradford at St. Marys; Tionesta at Farmington; and Titusville at Corry.

DiMaggio Deserves Top Money For Keeping Yankees Rolling

BY HARRY GRAYSON
NEA Sports Editor

NEW YORK—(NEA)—Joe DiMaggio reportedly signed a one-year contract at a flat $90,000. The Yankees' front office will say nothing more than that its front man got a good raise, however, and plainly told him to keep his financial affairs to himself.

In place of giving the details of the new arrangement, the New York American League club announced that the great outfielder collected an estimated $388,559.20 in salary and World Series checks in 10 years of service. He was worth every cent of it, and then some.

Messrs. Webb, Topping and Weiss might well have given DiMaggio what he wanted, and advertised him as the $100,000 ballplayer he so richly deserves to be in these days of unprecedented attendance.

That would have increased even DiMaggio's towering stature and bucks office magnetism. And to some extent at least it would have recompensed the Clipper for some of the lean pay checks he drew while having fat years under Ed Barrow.

"Ed Barrow refused to pay me what I was worth," he says, registering one of his mighty few complaints.

DiMAGGIO was paid $8500 when he came up from the San Francisco club in 1936, and was some time reaching $42,000, which was what he collected when he returned from the Army in 1946. Larry MacPhail gave him $50,000 in '47, and that base pay and bonus arrangement netted him $68,000 last year.

Hank Greenberg, Bob Feller, Hal Newhouse and Ted Williams have grossed more than DiMaggio in more recent years.

Of the 15 pennants the Yanks have won in 28 years only one was acquired without Babe Ruth or DiMaggio, and that was in a war year. There was a three-year lapse between Ruth and DiMaggio. As extraordinary as he was, Lou Gehrig could not carry the Yankees.

DiMaggio, now 35, stood out the past two campaigns under distressing circumstances. He paced the Yankees to another pennant and World championship in '47 despite an open crescent wound in the rim of his heel, the result of the removal of a spur.

Last season he kept the club in the fight until next to the last day, while for three weeks playing with the worst charley horse of his career.

DiMaggio is more than a remarkable slugger and runs-batted-inner and center fielder to whom the pitchers pitch and all hands look up. Joe DiMaggio has carried himself like a champion off the field as well.

Comfort with the "custom" touch!

Why do we believe that the new 1949 Lincoln Cosmopolitan is so much more luxuriously comfortable than other automobiles?

Simply because of the many extra "custom" touches this fine car has received—such as these:

—The broad choice of rich interior upholstery—and the elegant appointments you're offered —The deeper, more restful, foam-rubber cushioned seats you enjoy—and the ample leg room in front of them.

—The exceptional one-piece curved safety glass windshield almost five feet wide! (With a constant to your eyes as you drive!)

—The push-button windows! (This is so luxurious an automobile, they're "standard equipment.")

—The superbly smooth, ultra-relaxing ride . . . and that heavenly soundproofed freedom from road noises.

—The comforting safety of those powerful new brakes—unsurpassed for safe, gentle stopping.

—The thrilling smoothness of that powerful, yet thrifty great new Lincoln V-type "Eight"

Here is motoring comfort at its very best. Why not enjoy a thrilling sample of all this comfort soon? You can drive a Lincoln Cosmopolitan for the asking! Just call us today!

White side-wall tires and road lamps are optional.

New Process Shades Business School, 39-38; Style Shoppers Trim American Legion, 51-38

NEW PROCESS—24 sports . . . New Process Company piled up a 4-0 in the first half and weathered determined rally by their opponents in the second semester to edge the Warren Business School, 39-38, in a nip-and-tuck YMCA Basketball League scrap on a Y court last night.

Style Shop had an easier time of it in trimming the American Legion, 51-38, in a second league scrap. Individual scoring laurels in the evening went to two Style shoppers, Sig Decker with 18 points and Bill Massa with 17. McCoy had 12 points for New Process, and 11-point performances were credited to Colosimo, N. P. C.; Luzz-

County Boy Scouts Install Third New Troop This Year

Warren County Council, Boy Scouts of America, installed its third new troop since the start of the year when a charter was presented to Warren Troop 5. The new unit brings to 28 the number of troops now enrolled in the council.

The new troop is under the sponsorship of Warren Lodge of Elks, and will meet in the home of W. L. Wehner. The installation ceremonies were held Thursday in the Wehner home in conjunction with a tureen dinner with 87 parents, friends and new scouts present.

The charter for the new troop was presented to William J. McIntyre, representing the Elks, by J. Russell Hanson of the Boy Scout Organization committee. Scout Executive Frank Parker installed the new troop committee, which includes W. L. Wehner, chairman, R. E. Forsgren, J. R. Hanson, R. E. Bloom, E. W. Koebley, M. L. Rohlin, F. R. Erickson, L. J. Collins, S. H. Adams and Melvin T. Smith. The Scoutmaster is Don F. Lauff.

Youngsville Cub Scouts Have Dinner

Youngsville, Feb. 15—Youngsville Cub Scouts and members of their families, with invited guests, enjoyed a fine tureen dinner Saturday evening in the Methodist church dining room.

Den Mothers had an important part in the dinner plans and in making the dining room attractive. Gold and white streamers were used on the white tables, with a lovely large bouquet of blue iris and daffodils centering the special guest table.

Guests included Frank Parker, Boy Scout executive of Warren county; Vance Weld, Cub Scout commissioner of Warren, and the following Youngsville pastors: Rev. E. W. Chitester, Rev. Harold Lindquist, Rev. William Chamberlain, Jr., with Mrs. Chamberlain and daughter.

An appropriate talk was given by Executive Parker, and the Cub Charter for Pack 30 was presented by Commissioner Vance Weld to Mrs. Wendell Engstrom, president of Youngsville PTA, which organization is sponsoring the Cub Scouts.

Harvey Garris, Cubmaster of Pack 30, presented the following awards: New Cub Bobcat pins to Marlin Cobb, Michel Natale, David Mourer, James Smith, and Raymond Wertz.

Wolf badge and pin was awarded to Marlin Cobb; Bear badge and pins to Lee Thompson and

Father-Son Occasion At Youngsville

Youngsville, Feb. 15—Men and boys of the Methodist church are invited to a 6 p. m. dinner on Wednesday, February 23, in the dining room of the church, with Elton Barton in charge of group singing during the supper hour. Out of town speakers will be James Hengst, boys' work secretary of the Warren YMCA, who will show moving pictures, and Rev. W. T. Lane, of Warren, who will speak on "A Boy and His Dad". There will be no charge for the dinner, it is announced.

Brokenstraw Garden Club is planning to entertain other clubs of the county in the local school building on Tuesday evening, April 5. It will be in the form of a co-operative dinner for which out of town clubs will bring a tureen and table service, the local club to provide rolls, dessert and coffee. A very good program is planned. Clubs from Sugar Grove, Sheffield, Tidoute and Clarendon are invited.

Troop 58, with leaders B. Husted and E. Husted, enjoyed a birthday party in the American Legion Hall. Thirty-four Girl Scouts and guests enjoyed games and refreshments. The meeting closed with a Friendship Circle singing "Sing Your Way Home", followed by Taps. Adult guests were Mr. and Mrs. William Beggs and Miss Cecilia White. The committee members were Clarice Bull, Janet Pierson, Jean Samuelson, Shirley Eg-
